

DR. GIO BATTA GORI

Director, Health Policy Center. Heads a program of studies for an independent assessment of health hazards and risks, of costs and benefits of regulation, and the formulation of policy alternatives compatible with health and safety, and with a sound economy.

Consultant to major United States and European organizations in toxicology, epidemiology, nutrition and related product development and regulatory issues.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Broad experience in toxicology, epidemiology, carcinogenesis, and with industrial R&D planning, management and decision making. Exerted national leadership in carcinogenesis research, methods and priorities of carcinogen testing, epidemiology, smoking and health, nutrition, ozone depletion and ultraviolet radiation, cost and benefit analysis of prevention policies, safety and carcinogen regulation. Played key roles in the successful passage of the 1970 Cancer Act and subsequent appropriations. Planned and managed research and intervention programs of national and international scope, establishing consensus priorities in cancer causation, prevention and control, and patient management. First hand understanding of federal research and regulatory agencies, the budgetary and appropriations process, Congress and legislative operations, the diversity of motivation in private enterprise, academia, advocacy groups, and a pluralistic socioeconomic reality. Direct multilingual contacts with parallel issues and organizations in Europe. Numerous appearances at congressional hearings. Congressional contacts and familiarity with the lay and scientific media. Extensive experience in industrial and management consulting.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Biological Sciences, University of Camerino (Italy), 1956. Financial Analysis Program, Dun and Bradstreet School of Business, 1965. Program for Senior Managers in Government, Harvard Business School, 1977. Master of Public Health, Johns Hopkins University, 1979.

POSITIONS HELD

From 1980 to 1987, Dr. Gori was Director of The Franklin Institute Policy Analysis Center. Before, he held several positions at the National Cancer Institute (1968-1980), most recently as Deputy Director of the Division of Cancer Cause and Prevention (1972-80), with simultaneous responsibilities as Acting Associate Director, Carcinogenesis Program (1976-1978); Director, Diet, Nutrition and Cancer Program (1973-1980); Associate Scientific Director for Program, DCCP (1968-1972); Director, Smoking and Health Program (1968-1980).

Was previously Director of the Biological Research Laboratory at Litton Systems, Inc., Bethesda, Maryland, (1967-1968); Head of the Virology, Immunology, and Toxicology Sections at Melpar, Inc., Falls Church, Virginia, (1965-1967); Assistant to the President for Technical Affairs, Director of Quality Control, and Director of Production at Microbiological Associates, Inc., Bethesda, Maryland, (1962-1965).

Earlier research positions were Associate, Wistar Institute, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Associate Director, Istituto Sclavo, Siena, Italy; Research Associate, Virus Research Laboratory, University of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; and Associate, Microbiology and Virus Department, Istituto Superiore di Sanita', Rome, Italy.

EDITORIAL ACTIVITIES

COMPANY AND CLASSIFIED PUBLICATIONS

Project Director and/or Senior Author in the following

Concentration and quantitation of viral infectivity in model food samples. Melpar T/A 59128.701, 1965.

Six reports, Moloney Leukemia Virus Program. Melpar 5392.00200 (Ph43-65-1033), 1965-66.

The alteration of the indigenous microflora of the monkey. Melpar T/A 68196.701, 1966.

Four reports, The antitumor activity of characterized bivalve mollusk extracts. Melpar 5498.00100 (Ph43-66-35).

The preparation and testing of simian viruses and homologous antisera. Melpar T/A 68673.706, 1966.

The preparation and testing of cell-associated "T" antigens of viruses. Melpar T/A 68716.706, 1965.

Physiopathological monitoring of small primates. Melpar T/A 68712.706, 1966.

Oncogenicity of biological products in syrian hamsters. Melpar T/A 68770.706, 1966.

A study to determine the potential carcinogenicity and toxicology of seven chemically defined compounds. Melpar T/A 69439.762, 1966.

The simultaneous influence of magnetic fields and ionizing radiation upon mammals or mammalian systems. Melpar T/A 69070.702, 1966.

The antiviral and antitumor activity of biologically active algal extracts. Preparation and purification. Melpar T/A 69288.702, 1966.

Study for the determination of toxicological and carcinogenic potentials of oil adjuvant preparations. Melpar T/A 69438.762, 1966.

Chronic toxicity of various classes of cancer chemotherapeutic compounds. Melpar T/A 69479.702, 1966.

Design and management of animal isolation facilities. Melpar T/A 69541.702, 1966.

Improved diagnostic reagents for rhinoviruses. Melpar T/A 71025.702, 1966.

Physiochemical and toxicological characteristics of oil adjuvants, Melpar T/A 71127.702, 1966.

An investigation in the fate of mineral oil adjuvants. Melpar T/A 71231.702, 1966.

Improved diagnostic reagents for arboviruses. Melpar T/A 71314.702, 1967.

Oncogenic studies in tissue cultures and newborn animals. Melpar T/A 71028.702 (Ph43-67-1100), 1967.

The toxic and potential carcinogenic mode of B-propiolactone. Melpar T/A 71395.702, 1967.

Diagnostic methods for Rubella virus. Melpar T/A 71498.762, 1967.

Studies with Rubella virus and other viruses in primates and small animals. Melpar T/A 69273.702 (Ph43-67-1184), 1967.

Opportunities in respiratory virus vaccine production. Litton Systems, WSC-C-1020, 1967.

Production and testing of arbovirus reference reagents. Litton Systems, WSC-C-1016, 1967.

Manufacture of immunogenic polysaccharides. Litton Systems, WSC-C-1014, 1967.

Storage of kidneys for transplantation. Litton Systems, WSC-C-1011, 1967.

Radioimmune assays for FSH & LH in human serum. Litton Systems, WSC-C-1010, 1967.

Analytic studies in air pollution. Litton Systems, WSC-C-1003, 1967.

Operation of a Rubella Service Laboratory. Litton Systems, WSC-6004, 1967.

Continuous monitoring of water pollutants. Litton Systems, WSC-6007, 1967.

Analysis of pesticide residues. Litton Systems, WSC-6008, 1967.

(Minimizing pesticide residue contaminants of crops. Litton Systems, WSC-6010, 1967;

Control system for stream and river pollutants. Litton Systems, WSC-6011.

Soluble exotoxin of Vibrio Cholera. Litton Systems, WSC-6013, 1967.

Thyroid calcitonin & parathyroid hormone in blood samples. Litton Systems, WSC-6016, 1967.

Chemistry of the hypothalamic releasing factor. Litton Systems, WSC-6017, 1967.

Species differences in disposition of DDS and DADDS. Litton Systems, WSC-6024, 1967.

Lecithin synthesis in lungs. Litton Systems, WSC-6025, 1967.

Analyses of food samples. Litton Systems, WSC-6-26, 1967.

Diminution of pesticide residues for fish and wildlife programs. Litton Systems, WSC-6032, 1967.

Enteric flora studies in man and rats. Litton Systems, WSC-6033, 1967.

An automatic diabetes screening device. Litton Systems, WSC-6037, 1968.

Long-term holding facilities for small animals. Litton Systems, WSC-6039, 1968.

Effects of various materials on constituents of blood. Litton Systems, WSC-6040, 1968.

Pharmacology and toxicology of LSD-25 derivatives. Litton Systems, WSC-6041, 1968.

Materials for use in blood pumps and oxygenators. Litton Systems, WSC-6045, 1968.

Cocarcinogenicity of cyclopropanoid compounds. Litton Systems, WSC-6047, 1968.

Carcinogenicity of industrial pollutants and cigarette smoke. Litton Systems, WSC-6049, 1968.

Toxicity and carcinogenicity of progestational drugs. Litton Systems, WSC-8000, 1968.

Extracts of invertebrate tissue for antitumor screening. Litton Systems, WSC-8001, 1968.
